Rotating Fixed Log Grapple

AVAILABLE FOR 3T-25T

Aussie Buckets' Fixed Log Grapple, also known as the Forestry Grab or Bundle Grab, is a highly versatile attachment designed for the efficient and secure handling of logs and timber. Designed for precision, strength, and efficiency, the Rotating Fixed Log Grapple is the ultimate solution for demanding logging operations.

Featuring a fixed hitch which offering superior precision compared to swing grapples as well as a side mounted bash bash plate for rolling logs and pushing piles. Reinforced link arms and single ram mechanism ensure synchronised movement of both clamps, effectively absorbing external forces.

The grapple is equipped with an M+S rotating motor with an internal relief valve, enabling 360° continuous rotation without requiring a case drain, ensuring long-term durability. Its large opening and small close capability make it highly adaptable for handling various log and branch sizes, while the interlocking bunching-style clamps provide a firm and secure grip, making it ideal for heavy-duty applications.
